

E281 If the gods are good...

IF THE GODS ARE GOOD, THEN WHY...

Did Osofo Ahadzi, spokesperson for the Afrikania Mission, October 12, 2006 in Accra say that some women who consult the shrine in order to have children, having pledged the children to the shrine, if they later fail to redeem the pledge, END UP LOSING THOSE CHILDREN? Is He saying that the gods kill the very children they supposedly brought into the world unless the parents continue to do just as they say?

Good Question! Think about it.
